

DR. J. M. BURTON
RESIDENT DENTIST.
TEETH EXTRACTED
WITHOUT PAIN
Office—Hagan Block, up stairs
SPRINGFIELD, KY.
All Dental Work Strictly
First-class.

DR. J. C. MUDD
Physician and Surgeon
Office hours 8 to 9 a.m.,
1 to 2 p.m.,
Offices over Haydon's Drugstore

J. H. Lampton, M. D.
Office in Opera House.
Office Phone No. 8.
Residence No. 38

W. F. GRIGSBY
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
Office over People's Bank,
SPRINGFIELD, KY.

J. B. ROBARDS M. W. HYATT
ROBARDS & HYATT
Physicians and Surgeons
Office over C. W. Hagan's grocery, opposite Presbyterian church.

D. W. W. Ray
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Office over Haydon & Robertson's Drug Store.

Phones Office 115,
Residence 172

JOHN Y. MAYES
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
AND LICENSED EMBALMER

TELEPHONE
DAY 119, NIGHT 74.
SPRINGFIELD, KY.

Railroad Schedule.
Following is the time schedule in effect on the Bardstown
and Springfield branch railroad:

No. 41—Leaves Louisville at 4:30 p.m.; Bardstown Junction
5:22 p.m.; Bardstown, 6:06 p.m.
arrives at Springfield, 7:03 p.m.

No. 42—Leaves Springfield at 8:20 a.m.; Bardstown, 9:07 a.m.;
Bardstown Junction, 9:50 a.m.;
arrives at Louisville, 7:40 a.m.

No. 43—Leaves Louisville at 8:20 a.m.; Bardstown Junction
9:10 a.m.; Bardstown, 11:00 a.m.;
arrives at Springfield, 12:30 p.m.

No. 44—Leaves Springfield at
1:00 p.m.; Bardstown, 2:30 p.m.; Bardstown Junction, 4:25 p.m.;
arrives at Louisville, 5:45 p.m.

No. 90, Sundays only—Leaves
Louisville at 7:15 a.m.; Bard-stown 8 a.m.; Bardstown Junction
8:45 a.m.; arrives at Louisville,
9:35 a.m.

No. 91, Sundays only—Leaves
Louisville at 6 p.m.; Bardstown
Junction, 6:45 p.m.; Bardstown,
7:10 p.m.; arrives at Springfield,
8:20 p.m.

To Tobacco Shoppers.
We wish to state to our friends
throughout the tobacco growing sections that we are not connected, directly or indirectly, with any other warehouse or warehouse company.

We conduct a "Strictly Independent" Tobacco Warehouse
"Commission Business and respectfully solicit your patronage."

C. A. BRIDGES & Co., Proprietors,
Pick's Tobacco Warehouse,
Louisville, Ky. 40-8 mo.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS
WITH Dr. King's
New Discovery
FOR CONSUMPTION
Price 50c. $1.00
Free Trial.

Sweet and Quickest Cure for All
THROAT AND LUNG TROUB-LES, OR HOARSENESS.

NOTICE
I desire to urge all who know
themselves to be indebted to me to come in and settle at once. I have been burned out and it is very important that I should make speedy collections of all outstanding accounts. I trust
my friends will be prompt in this matter.

W. F. Leachman,
When you feel the need of a pill take
Dr. King's Little Blue Pills. Small pill, safe pill, sure pill. Easy to take
—no nausea, no dizziness, drives
out the poisons, sold by the Best Cross Drug Store.

TOWN.

All About Yourself, Friends
and Acquaintances.

Porch chairs and settees at Campbell's.

Millet seed. The cheapest in town at Barber's.

200 pair shoes and slippers at Campbell's 25c a pair and up.

Don't forget you can get fur niture at Campbell's grocery.

Bring your eggs and chickens
to Campbell's grocery and get cash.

If you want your dinner supplies in time send in your order before 9 to Campbell.

TOBACCO PLANTS—1 have tobacco print beds for sale, George Wright on W. H. Leachman's farm.

Thrifty people use Green Seal Paint. Considering results, it's the cheapest, always. For sale
by W. L. Yancy, Mackville, Ky.

Property owners who desire fasting results should insist on Green Seal, the great preserver.
For sale by W. L. Yancy, Mack-
ville, Ky.

The Louisville Daily Herald and the News-Leader at $2.50 a year is yet the cheapest proposition for a good daily and a good home weekly.

Put your dollars into good plant—it pays every time. Ordinary plant is dear at any price.
Green Seal is an investment.
For sale by W. L. Yancy, Mack-
ville, Ky.

We are prepared to furnish engraved visiting cards, reception
and wedding invitations, etc. in the latest styles. A full line of samples can be seen at the News-Leader office.

The members of the St. Catharine's Alumnae will have a meeting the eighteenth of June.
All the members are kindly requested to be at the Academy or near at hand the seventeenth.
Important business will be transacted.

Bob Russell holds the record
for heavy weight fish captured
from the reservoir lake. Yesterday morning Bob caught a black bass from the lake that weighed five pounds. This is the largest bass that has ever been caught
from that place.

The Weekly Courier-Journal is on a boom. Its circulation has grown wonderfully in the past few months. It is deservedly no better paper published anywhere than the weekly Courier-Journal. Henry Watterson's
editorials are all printed in the Weekly.

Mr. B. D. Lake and family have moved into their new residence on Willoughby street. Mr.
Hugh Noe and family have moved into the house vacated
by the Lake family and Mr.
and Mrs. Harry Shadler have moved into their own house which was occupied by the Noe family.

Mr. Robert Hardin McElroy,
who has been a sufferer from stomach trouble for several years
is very low at his home in town and his family fear the worst. Last week Mr. McElroy went out to Tatham Springs
thinking to get some benefit from the water, but he was taken worse and was brought home last Friday. Since that time his conditions have grown steadily worse.

The marriage of Miss Rena Yankey to Mr. W. J. Schoene took place at the home of the brides father, Mr. J. S. Yankey,
in the Pleasant Grove neighborhood on Tuesday morning. A few intimate friends of the family were present to witness the ceremony. Rev. J. W.
Carter officiated. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal pair left to take the train for New York. Mr. Schoene holds a responsible position with the Agricultural Experiment Bureau
for the State of New York, and he and his wife will make their home in that State.

Mr. Logan Walker rural mail carrier had a valuable horse
very badly hurt one day last week as the result of being frightened by an automobile.
Mr. Walker had come from his trip and was on his way home on East Main Street. He stopped
his wagon a few hundred yards
below his home to deliver

Local Happenings of Interest. The Freshest and Latest.

TOPICS.

package to a neighbor. While the horse and wagon were standing in the street an automobile driven by Mr. Joe Hart, of Lebanon came along and the horse took fright and ran. It turned in Mr. Walker's gate, struck the gate post with the buggy demolishing it and ran on against a locust tree. A limb from the tree was broken off and the stump of the limb was driven into the horse's side inflicting a terrible wound just behind the shoulder. The horse is still living but will probably be permanently blinded. Mr. Hart was placed under arrest charged with exceeding the speed limit.
He has not yet been tried.

The thousands of gallons of Green Seal Paint sold every year merely attest its worthiness,
as a paint for all practical purposes. For sale by W. L. Yancy, Mackville, Ky.

Money in a Nest.
Walter Wheatley the young
son of Mr. J. Ed Wheatley, probably is now a believer of the saying that dollars sometimes grow on trees, since his experience on his father's farm the other day. Walter climbed to the top of a locust tree in the yard to investigate the nest of a pair of English sparrows. The nest was empty so the boy proceeded to dislodge it from the limbs. Something unusual caught his eye which upon closer investigation he found to be a one dollar bill. The little birds had used the bill in constructing their nest but just when they held up
for the money which will probably never be known.

Horses Burned.
On last Wednesday night at about 11 o'clock fire broke out in the stable of Dr. J. C. Mudd back of his residence on Main street and destroyed the stable and some of the contents. Two of Dr. Mudd's driving horses were caught in the fire and both were badly burned, one of them so badly that it will die. The origin of the fire is not known.
The fire department responded quickly to the alarm and after the water was turned on quickly subdued the flames, but not before the frame structure with most of the hay and feed were partially destroyed. The distressing part of the conflagration was the burning of the horses which were confined in their stalls and could not be released in time to escape the flames. Several vehicles were saved. The property was insured for $200 divided as follows:
$250 on the two horses, $150 on building, $100 on vehicles, $100
on feed.

Will Reed Coming.
Although Will Reed the Springfield boy who is with Uncle Sam's cavalry at Ft. Yellowstone, Wyoming, has not arrived
in Springfield yet his friends here are expecting him on any train as he is on his way. According to the following from the Louisville Herald he has already arrived in Louisville. The item says: "In an effort to induce Gen. John B. Castleman to class his saddle, Clifton, in the cross country ride from Oregon
to New Jersey, originally proposed by Homer Davenport, carpenter and Arab horse fancier,
Lieut. W. O. Reed, of the Sixth
United States Cavalry, arrived
in Louisville last evening. Lieut.
Reed's visit is made in behalf of a number of cavalry officers, who are anxious to have the American saddle horse make the test.

Lieut. Reed said at the Seel-bach last evening that he did not care to discuss the situation
until after he had talked with Gen. Castleman, who was not in Louisville yesterday. Gen.
Castleman and Lieut. Reed will confer on the subject today or tomorrow, when the matter may be decided."

Leachman-Litsey.
An announcement of a local annual interest in local society circles is made by Mr.
and Mrs. W. H. Leachman of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Gilbert Leachman to Mr. David Randall Litsey which is to take place, on Saturday June 29th at sunset. The wedding will be a quiet home affair
and will take place at the parent's place of the bride's parents
near Springfield. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple will leave for Cincinnati
from which place they will take a trip east. Upon their return
they expect to go to housekeeping in Springfield. Both of these young people have a host of friends not only in Springfield
but elsewhere throughout the state who will wish them much happiness. Miss Leachman is the youngest daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. W. H. Leachman and has many admirers for her many charms of person and character.
Mr. Litsey is the son of Judge
B. L. Litsey, and is a young man of fine character and good business qualifications. He is a member of the Robertson, Clay-brooke Co. the local merchants.

Hatchett-Keightley.
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hatchett announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Ora, to Mr. George T. Keightley. The wedding is to take place at the home of the bride's parents on the morning of June 12th, at 10 o'clock.

The bride-to-be is a young lady of charming personality
and a favorite among her social circle. Mr. Keightley is a young man of sterling qualities and an enterprising young farmer. Immediately after the ceremony
the bridal couple will leave for Cincinnati.

Died in Louisville.
Mr. Richard Montgomery, for many years a resident of this county, but who has been living in Louisville for the past five or six years, died in that city at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. P.
T. Kelrow, on last Monday and the remains were brought to this place on Tuesday for burial
at St. Rose. The deceased was 83 years of age and was a highly respected citizen and for years
a successful farmer of the St.
Rose neighborhood. A son, Mr.
J. A. Montgomery, of Kansas
City, and a daughter, Mrs. P. T.
Kelrow, of Louisville survive him.

PERSONAL
Mr. David R. Litsey was in Louisville last Sunday.

Mr. Hugh Lee Smith spent Sunday in Bardstown.

Mrs. W. W. Ray was in Bloomfield the first of the week.

Mr. Charles Jeffries was here
from Louisville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Claybrooke
went to Bloomfield yesterday.

Dr. H. D. Rodman, of Shelby-ville, was here Sunday night.

Messrs. Frank W. and Will F.
Simms were in Lebanon Monday.

Mrs. Fred Manget, of Louisville, is visiting her parents here.

Mrs. W. S. Gibbs attended the decoration at Willoughby, Saturday.

Miss Virginia Leslie, of Lebanon, visited friends here last
week.

Mrs. Mary A. Noel left Monday
for a visit to relatives in Louisville.

Mr. J. Charles Green, of Bardstown, was here Friday and Saturday.

Miss Laura Sheahan, of Nelson
county, visited relatives here
last week.

Miss Bessie Leachman is in Louisville visiting her sister, Mrs. Arch Hays.

Miss Roe Montgomery, of Lebanon, is a guest of Miss Mabel Thompson.

Robert Mayes who is a student at State College, Lexington, is at home for the vacation.

Messrs. Jim Shultz, Len Allen and Clifford Roberts were in Bardstown Sunday.

Miss Mabel Thompson, of

C. F. RUSSELL,
Scientific Optician.
Main Office Springfield, Ky.

BISIGHT

Ask for Bisight? The new
invisible Double Glass. The
only double glass that is
ground in one piece, for far and near work. We also
sell the Kryptox and Optiflex
Bifocal Glass.

DR. W. C. GRIGSBY
has one of the best Optical
Stores in the State. He has added to his store the following instruments: The Geneva combined Retina-
scope and Ophthalmoscope
and the C. I. Ophthalmom-
eter for measuring the as-
igmatic Eyes. He has installed a water motor and
put in a dynamo for lighting up the above instruments. He fills Oculists
Prescription and does all
kinds of frame work.
Frames made to order to fit
any face. He is making a specialty of fitting glasses
and fits them correctly and
guarantees satisfaction.

W. C. GRIGSBY.
The Leading Optician,
BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY.

Pleasant Grove, spent last week
with Miss Veda Browne.

Mr. Richard Wathen, of Louisville, spent a few days here
last week with Wathen Simms.

Miss Dollie Gregor who has
been attending college at Wil-
more is at home for the vacation.

Miss Florence Hamilton, of Fredericktown, visited her sister, Mrs. J. L. Barber last week.

Messrs. Sylvester Russell and
W. W. Spalding, of the Lebanon
bar, attended court here last
week.

Misses Lucy and Veda Browne
have gone to Bloomfield for a visit to their sister, Mrs. Mc-Cluskey.

Mr. W. C. McChord in attending the meeting of the Barley
Tobacco Growers in Winchester
this week.

Mr. H. M. Grundy will go to Lebanon Junction tomorrow on business connected with a masonic lodge.

Will Sealeman has gone to Louisville where he will remain
until he finishes a course in
seniography.

Mr. Knight Handy who has been attending school at this
place has gone to Cincinnati to
visit his mother.

Dr. John M. Spalding who has just graduated at a Louisville
Medical College is at home for a
visit to his parents.

Mrs. E. F. Wathen, of Bard-
stown Junction, is here on a
visit to her daughters, Messdames
Simms and Cooper.

Miss Willie Hughes has re-
turned to her home at Bloom-
field after finishing her term at
school at this place.

Prof. George Colvin, Leo
Simms and John F. Simms went
to Bloomfield yesterday to attend the base ball game.

Dr. Hyatt, Leo Haydon, and
J. P. Pettus accompanied the remains of Mr. N. I. Buster to Mercer county last Saturday.

Mrs. J. J. McCabe and daughter
Miss Mary, are in Winchester
this week to attend the wedding
of Mr. McCabe's niece, Miss
Scott.

Prof. Walter Heine has returned to his home at Mackville.
Prof. Hums will have charge of the school at his home town
next year.

Mr. John Burns after a short visit to relatives in this county
returned yesterday to Kincaid,
Ky. where he has been making
his home for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Kelrow, of Louisville, accompanied the remains of Mrs. Kelrow's father,
Mr. R. L. Montgomery to this place Tuesday for burial.

Mr. R. Y. McElroy and sister,
Miss Rebecca, were over from Lebanon the first of the week to
see their brother, Mr. R. H.
McElroy, who is dangerously ill.

Mrs. Lula Blanton and Master
Charles, of Prospect, Tenn.,
Mr. John Bell, of Corbin, Prof.
C. W. Bell, of Harrodsburg, and
Miss Mary Blanton, of Boston,
are visiting at the home of W.
S. Gibbs.

Mrs. Joe Raybourne and daughter, Miss Minerva, and

BISIGHT

Ask for Bisight? The new
invisible Double Glass. The
only double glass that is
ground in one piece, for
far and near work. We also
sell the Kryptox and Optiflex
Bifocal Glass.

DR. W. C. GRIGSBY
has one of the best Optical
Stores in the State. He has
added to his store the following instruments: The Geneva combined Retina-
scope and Ophthalmoscope
and the C. I. Ophthalmom-
eter for measuring the as-
igmatic Eyes. He has installed a water motor and
put in a dynamo for light-
ing up the above instruments. He fills Oculists
Prescription and does all
kinds of frame work.
Frames made to order to fit
any face. He is making a specialty of fitting glasses
and fits them correctly and
guarantees satisfaction.

W. C. GRIGSBY.
The Leading Optician,
BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY.

Pleasant Grove, spent last week
with Miss Veda Browne.

Mr. Richard Wathen, of Louis-
ville, spent a few days here
last week with Wathen Simms.

Miss Dollie Gregor who has
been attending college at Wil-
more is at home for the vacation.

Miss Florence Hamilton, of Fredericktown, visited her sister, Mrs. J. L. Barber last week.

Messrs. Sylvester Russell and
W. W. Spalding, of the Lebanon
bar, attended court here last
week.

Misses Lucy and Veda Browne
have gone to Bloomfield for a visit to their sister, Mrs. Mc-
Cluskey.

Mr. W. C. McChord in attending the meeting of the Barley
Tobacco Growers in Winchester
this week.

Mr. H. M. Grundy will go to Lebanon Junction tomorrow on
business connected with a masonic lodge.

Will Sealeman has gone to Louisville where he will remain
until he finishes a course in
seniography.

Mr. Knight Handy who has
been attending school at this
place has gone to Cincinnati to
visit his mother.

Dr. John M. Spalding who has
just graduated at a Louisville
Medical College is at home for a
visit to his parents.

Mrs. E. F. Wathen, of Bard-
stown Junction, is here on a
visit to her daughters, Messdames
Simms and Cooper.

Miss Willie Hughes has re-
turned to her home at Bloom-
field after finishing her term at
school at this place.

Prof. George Colvin, Leo
Simms and John F. Simms went
to Bloomfield yesterday to attend the base ball game.

Dr. Hyatt, Leo Haydon, and
J. P. Pettus accompanied the
remains of Mr. N. I. Buster to Mercer county last Saturday.

Mrs. J. J. McCabe and daughter
Miss Mary, are in Winchester
this week to attend the wedding
of Mr. McCabe's niece, Miss
Scott.

Prof. Walter Heine has re-
turned to his home at Mackville.
Prof. Hums will have charge of
the school at his home town
next year.

Mr. John Burns after a short
visit to relatives in this county
returned yesterday to Kincaid,
Ky. where he has been making
his home for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Kelrow, of Louisville, accompanied the remains of Mrs. Kelrow's father,
Mr. R. L. Montgomery to this
place Tuesday for burial.

Mr. R. Y. McElroy and sister,
Miss Rebecca, were over from Lebanon the first of the week to
see their brother, Mr. R. H.
McElroy, who is dangerously ill.

Mrs. Lula Blanton and Master
Charles, of Prospect, Tenn.,
Mr. John Bell, of Corbin, Prof.
C. W. Bell, of Harrodsburg, and
Miss Mary Blanton, of Boston,
are visiting at the home of W.
S. Gibbs.

Mrs. Joe Raybourne and
daughter, Miss Minerva, and

BISIGHT

Ask for Bisight? The new
invisible Double Glass. The
only double glass that is
ground in one piece, for
far and near work. We also
sell the Kryptox and Optiflex
Bifocal Glass.

DR. W. C. GRIGSBY
has one of the best Optical
Stores in the State. He has
added to his store the following instruments: The Geneva combined Retina-
scope and Ophthalmoscope
and the C. I. Ophthalmom-
eter for measuring the as-
igmatic Eyes. He has installed a water motor and
put in a dynamo for light-
ing up the above instruments. He fills Oculists
Prescription and does all
kinds of frame work.
Frames made to order to fit
any face. He is making a specialty of fitting glasses
and fits them correctly and
guarantees satisfaction.

W. C. GRIGSBY.
The Leading Optician,
BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY.

Pleasant Grove, spent last week
with Miss Veda Browne.

Mr. Richard Wathen, of Louis-
ville, spent a few days here
last week with Wathen Simms.

Miss Dollie Gregor who has
been attending college at Wil-
more is at home for the vacation.

Miss Florence Hamilton, of Fredericktown, visited her sister, Mrs. J. L. Barber last week.

Messrs. Sylvester Russell and
W. W. Spalding, of the Lebanon
bar, attended court here last
week.

Misses Lucy and Veda Browne
have gone to Bloomfield for a visit to their sister, Mrs. Mc-
Cluskey.

Mr. W. C. McChord in attending the meeting of the Barley
Tobacco Growers in Winchester
this week.

Mr. H. M. Grundy will go to Lebanon Junction tomorrow on
business connected with a masonic lodge.

Will Sealeman has gone to Louisville where he will remain
until he finishes a course in
seniography.

Mr. Knight Handy who has
been attending school at this
place has gone to Cincinnati to
visit his mother.

Dr. John M. Spalding who has
just graduated at a Louisville
Medical College is at home for a
visit to his parents.

Mrs. E. F. Wathen, of Bard-
stown Junction, is here on a
visit to her daughters, Messdames
Simms and Cooper.

Miss Willie Hughes has re-
turned to her home at Bloom-
field after finishing her term at
school at this place.

Prof. George Colvin, Leo
Simms and John F. Simms went
to Bloomfield yesterday to attend the base ball game.

Dr. Hyatt, Leo Haydon, and
J. P. Pettus accompanied the
remains of Mr. N. I. Buster to Mercer county last Saturday.

Mrs. J. J. McCabe and daughter
Miss Mary, are in Winchester
this week to attend the wedding
of Mr. McCabe's niece, Miss
Scott.

Prof. Walter Heine has re-
turned to his home at Mackville.
Prof. Hums will have charge of
the school at his home town
next year.

Mr. John Burns after a short
visit to relatives in this county
returned yesterday to Kincaid,
Ky. where he has been making
his home for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Kelrow, of Louisville, accompanied the remains of Mrs. Kelrow's father,
Mr. R. L. Montgomery to this
place Tuesday for burial.

Mr. R. Y. McElroy and sister,
Miss Rebecca, were over from Lebanon the first of the week to
see their brother, Mr. R. H.
McElroy, who is dangerously ill.

Mrs. Lula Blanton and Master
Charles, of Prospect, Tenn.,
Mr. John Bell, of Corbin, Prof.
C. W. Bell, of Harrodsburg, and
Miss Mary Blanton, of Boston,
are visiting at the home of W.
S. Gibbs.

Mrs. Joe Raybourne and
daughter, Miss Minerva, and

BURGLAR'S AP

Girl Sits on Robber's Knee While Confronts Lot Her House.

NOT OF HER OWN FREE WILL

Did Man Took Her Out of Bed and Held Her to Keep Her Still—Midnight
Mischiefers Made a Good Deal
and Fled.

Miss Julie Sorotta was sleeping in her parents' home, 20 Canal street, Woodhaven, Queens, New York, at 2 o'clock in the morning, when she, who is fifteen, opened her big black eyes to see, sleeping, a masked man leaning over her. Two other fellows, masked, were in her charge. They had lit the gas.

"Now, don't make a noise," warned the man at her bed. "We are not going to hurt you. We only want to know where your dad keeps his money."

Mrs. Sadie, thoroughly awake, her eyes staring, opened her mouth to speak.

"If you do," the burglar thrust a pistol in her face. His companion, a young man, stood by the door.

"I'll take care of you," said Mrs. Sadie, bargainer, lifting her from bed.

"I won't hurt you."

Only the threatening pistol held Miss Sadie from screaming. The burglar, carrying her as if she were a baby, walked to the nearest chair, seated himself and put her on his knee.

"Now, you're perfectly safe if you keep quiet," he said, reassuringly. "I won't hurt you."

Sadie, trembling, remained silent. As it turned out, the ransom's ransom went through most of the house, gathered money, checks, jewelry and silverware, finally entering the room where Miss Sadie, a daughter, Sadie's sister, her father's guest, was sleeping.

One held a dagger at Sadie's throat; the other took a belt and suspenders from Sadie's drawers, tied his ankles with the suspenders, bound his arms to his sides with the belt, gagged him and filled his pockets.

But the gag was not fast. Eyes found his voice and yelled. Sadie picked up courage to scream. Her father, Morris, awakened and ran into her room. The burglar threw her from him, jumped to his feet and fled at Sadie's, who fell with a bullet in her arm.

"That wasn't a new way to behave," said the burglar, reproachfully to Sadie, as he jumped over the prostrate father and ran after his fleeing companion. "Didn't I tell you I wouldn't harm you?"

The three got clean away with their loot. Sorotta's wound is more painful than serious. He is a thriving butcher and has stopped payment on the stolen checks.

Black Cat Breaks Up Happy Home

A black cat has been the cause of breaking up the household of Constantine Harvey, 1111 Madison street, Hartford, Conn., and a divorce has been granted because the husband because his persistent in taking the animal to bed with her. The plaintiff alleged that he would not have objected so much if the cat had stayed on her mistress's side of the bed instead of phlegm with his feet and causing him to spend many restless nights. Mullins testified that he stood the tortoise as long as possible. Then he captured pussy and took her to the river and dropped her. His wife, he says, became furious upon learning of the loss of her pet and was cruel and inhuman toward him. Finally they agreed to divorce and divided their fortune.

Undressed by Machinery

Charles Malley, who is employed in the Indiana Oil company's refinery in Georgetown, Ky., had as narrow an escape from death a few days ago as ever allowed a man. Malley's clothing was caught by a big shaft revolving at the rate of 240 times a minute, and he was whirled around until stripped of every vestige of clothing except his shoes and socks and came out of the machine only slightly injured. While Sadie, hearing Malley's screams, had stopped the machinery. With remarkable presence of mind Malley clung to an iron beam until he could be lifted from his perilous position. The fearful fight around the shaft had been taken within a few feet of the roof.

Wrote Farewell Note to Blood

After writing a pathetic letter to her mother with the point of a pen dipped in her own blood, Miss Elizabeth, twenty-four years old, a pretty brunette, turned on three jets in her car at the house of Attorney George W. Brown, in York, Ind. and drove madly across Indiana, leaving death in its wake and the young woman to a fate.

Rickets

Simply the visible sign that baby's tiny bones are not forming rapidly enough.

Lack of nourishment is the cause.

Scott's Emulsion nourishes baby's entire system. Stimulates and makes bone.

Exactly what baby needs.

ALL DRUGGISTS, 10c and 25c.

BLEEDING A KING.

Louis XIV., a Greedy Physician and an Unscrupulous Surgeon.

In 1683, when Louis XIV. began to feel the first touch of age, his physicians ordered him to be bled once a month. That duty was of course entrusted to Marchais, his Irish surgeon. There was at the time in Paris, says the British Medical Journal, a young brother of the craft who conceived the idea of making his name by bleeding the king. The enterprise was ditched, but he knew that the most solid doctors often be opened with a golden key.

Following the advice of Jago, he put money in his purse and sought an introduction to Antoine Daquin, the king's chief physician. The negotiation was conducted on a strict business footing. Daquin, who was known to Jago money, was told that 10,000 crowns were deposited with a notary who had instructions to transfer the sum to him as soon as the surgeon had got the job.

It was not an easy thing to manage, as Marchais never left the king. One day, however, he asked permission to leave Versailles for three days. Daquin seized the opportunity to introduce his protégé, whom he had ready at hand for the purpose. Feeling the king's pulse one morning, he told Antoine Marchais was away, the king beat it, but fear soon made him yield to his physician's proposal. The young surgeon bled the king, and Daquin got his money.

In the meantime a message had been dispatched for Marchais, who was not far off. He returned to Versailles in haste and was much surprised to find that the king, whom he had bled, was best of health, had been bled. He was not on friendly terms with Daquin, and he quickly grasped the situation. He went to see the young surgeon and forced him to disclose the whole plot.

When the king learned the truth, he flew into a terrible rage. He ordered Daquin to be arrested and placed the matter in the hands of the council of state. That disquieting body, after a very short deliberation, unanimously voted that the physician who had trafficked in the blood of the king deserved death. The royal wrath, however, subsided to some extent, and he graciously spared Daquin's life, but deprived him of his office and exiled him from the court to Quimper-Corentin. The too greedy physician did not long survive his disgrace—London Standard.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Cheerfulness is a great aggravation to an angry man.

Nearly every one thinks he is a good judge of human nature.

You can't do anything very well if you don't want to do it.

It is not difficult to prove you are right from your own point of view.

How people economized in the old days! But not many people do now.

Some men would do wonderful things if some little thing were not in the way.

When a boy wants a favor from his parents he asks his father's permission and tells his mother he is going to do it.

The average friendship is wrecked upon the fact that the average person's idea of a friend is some one he can count upon to take a ride.

Burro Drivers Carry Candles.

In Mexico all vehicles, be they hand cart, automobile or anything between, must carry a light at night. This rule or law is rightly enforced. Even the drivers of the poor burro or mule carts, on their two wheels, must carry a light. So, rather than buy lanterns, which cost money, they take a dip candle, and wrapping it in a bit of newspaper to shield it from the wind, carry it in their hands.

Along home from work after evening has fallen. The effect is striking as the light falling strongly on the Inconspicuous her hind legs of the man into strong relief against the darkness.—Modern Mexico.

English Juror's Remuneration.

The scale of remuneration of English jurors is a subject in a civil case in England a common juror is allowed 5 shillings ($1.25) a day for a "view"—that is, for inspecting any property or thing in dispute—but otherwise he is, in law, not entitled to any remuneration. It is usual, however, in the high courts to allow a juror 10 shillings and in the counties 8 pence. Special jurors receive much higher remuneration. The remuneration of the juror is 1 shilling a case, in the mayor's court 2 pence and in the London sheriff's court 4 pence.—Chambers's Journal.

Not Honored.

"It is a fine, elegant husband you have, man," said Maggie. "I'll not be taken up with that fellow. He's a gentleman. And there ain't much husbands as good to their wives, man." Look how he brings up his hands and tucks them in his pockets, dear, dear! That kind never lives long.—New York News.

Independent Criticism.

A little girl sat gazing anxiously at the new bouquet of one of her mother's visitors until the child smilingly asked: "Do you like it, my dear?"

"The child answered politely: "Yes, I do. Mamma and Aunt Milla said it was a perfect fright, but it doesn't frighten me a bit."

He who commits an injustice is ever more wretched than he who suffers from it.

—Plato.

Skull Plate a Tuning Fork.

Thomas Storer, a 62-year-old prisoner, recently became violently insane at the Mount Vernon (N. Y.) prison. Storer was one of Roosevelt's rough riders, and when in the service the top of his head was shaved. A silver plate was used to cover the skull, and it is said that in the noise and whir of machinery in the penitentiary the plate became like a sounding tuning fork.

It is feared that his dementia is now incurable.

The Human Brain.

The human brain has not steadily increased since the dawn of time, as Professor Lankester tells us, by way of concrete illustration, the brain of a modern man is not larger than that of an Australian Aborigine.

—London Outlook.

Wonderful Effect.

Mrs. Mary Rice: I hear you have spent most of your time in Florida. Mrs. Parsons: Yes, we're quite delighted. Princeton, Tenn.

The tears of the night came the studies of the day.—Romaine.

FIERY FURNACE.

New Yorker Emulates Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego.

HOKED OUT THROUGH A HOLE

Firmen Saved From Being Cremated Alive by Quick Witted Contrived With Long Poles—Homes After Brief
Call at Hospital.

George Nichols of truck No. 10, New experience something like that of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in an accident, which occurred in New York city, was hoked out through a hole in the roof of a building.

After seven firemen had been overcome by smoke and rescued from the building, Nichols was hoked out through a hole in the roof of a building.

Result of One Partner's Hunger and the Other Partner's Thirst.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

HE HAD HIS DOSE.

An Incident of the Terrible Battle of Montmirail.

In February, 1818, the French army made a heroic stand against the allied forces of Europe, and in one week received for a short but glorious period by lost comrades. Though composed largely of half-trained recruits, it escaped from the very center of 250,000 foes, attacked an army of 70,000 men, won 4 battles and captured 68 cannon, 5 generals and 28,000 prisoners.

After the terrible fight at Montmirail Major Banastre was severely wounded, and was attending the wounded as well as he could, close behind the column still engaged. Looking up from one unfortunate man whose wounds he was dressing, he perceived within a short distance an old mounted charger of the guard, who was tranquilly smoking his pipe and watching the surgeon.

Banned did not at first pay any attention to him. By and by he noticed the man again, still in the same pose, tranquilly smoking his pipe.

"What are you doing there?" cried the surgeon.

"Smoking," answered the man. "Does the smoke bother me to smoke?"

"What?" returned the officer. "Are you ashamed to be hoked out here while your comrades are crowded out themselves with glory?"

The charger blew out a cloud of smoke, and, with his eyes fixed on his steed, made him execute a half turn. Then he said, taking his pipe out of his mouth:

"Look, major. Don't you think I have got my dose as it is? Can I do anything more?"

The major looked. The charger's leg was shot off half way between the knee and the hock, so that his left foot was hanging and flapping against his horse. The veteran's question required no answer. But it may be surmised that, care and distress, the surgeon's levity on the imperturbable charger.

LINCOLN'S GROCERY.

Result of One Partner's Hunger and the Other Partner's Thirst.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

Mr. Lincoln's first business venture resulted in a disastrous failure. He formed a partnership with one Berry, under the firm name of Berry & Lincoln.

A sign in a store, he was as awkward as a wasp. His rustic appearance was enhanced by an ill-fitting suit of homespun. Thus at the least of the ex-tenant he made his debut in the outer world, without money, without friends, without influence, and with a very sorry beginning, but let it be remembered that if on that day he had graduated from Harvard in a fashionable coat the critics of history would probably have been closed against him.

WOMAN'S MISERY

is one of woman's worst afflictions. It always leaves you weaker, and is sure to shorten your life and make your beauty fade. To stop pain take Wine of Cardui and it will help to relieve your misery, regulate your functions, make you well, beautiful and strong. It is a reliable remedy for dragging down pains, backache, headache, nervousness, irritability, sleeplessness, dizziness, fainting spells, and similar troubles. A safe and efficient medicine for all women's pains and sickness.

Mrs. J. L. Broadhead of Clanton, Ala. writes: "I have used Cardui for my disease, which was one peculiar to women, and it has completely cured me."

AT ALL DRUG STORES, IN $1.00 BOTTLES

WRITE US A LETTER

and we will send you Free Advice in regard to your ailments. Address: The Cardui Company, 100 Broadway, New York City.

THE SPORTING WORLD

Smathers as a Humorist.

Another contest will take place for the famous Memphis gold cup, provided the wishes of Mayor E. S. Snodgrass of New York are carried out.

Through his attorney, Caruthers Ewing, Mr. Smathers announces that the trophy which has attracted so much attention through the trotting and event courts will be donated for a contest to take place over the same course that Lord Delmar and Major Delmar have so often contested, which ended in the charges of doping.

The event, according to Mr. Smathers, will be for miles and will consist of but a single heat. The driver of the winner will be given permanent possession of the valuable trophy, which is said to have an intrinsic value of over $20,000.

According to Mr. Ewing, Mr. Smathers would be glad of the opportunity to rid himself of the gold cup in this manner, and he offers $10,000 to the winner.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.

It is related that Mr. Lincoln bought a barrel of a customer, in the bottom of which, among other rubbish, was a "jumble bird" in the possession of the devil and said that to kill it would bring death to his slayer. Another bird found in the same region is the "Sno-friar bird," which makes its home near the volcano of San Francisco.